

St. Anselm Catholic School
Toronto, Ontario

SCHOOLS

Client

Toronto Catholic District School Board

Architect

Moffet and Duncan Architects

Project Completion Date

September, 1997

Type of Contract

Construction Management

Project Value

$1,000,000

Project Description

In 1997, the Toronto Catholic District School Board approved funds for the demolition of the 1938 and 1943 wings and the construction of a two-story addition. During the construction all of the students were transported to 1107 Avenue Road, now the location of Marshall McLuhan High School. Staff and students moved back to the newly built and renovated school in May 1998.